From the Pastor's Desk...

We're over the 'half-way' mark!

For those you who are old enough to remember (I'll use my age of 63 as the benchmark,) this Sunday was referred to as 'Laetare Sunday' on the old church calendar. It was the popular name for this 'Fourth Sunday of Lent,' because it is just past the midpoint of our Lenten season.

For this reason, it has traditionally been viewed as a day of celebration, on which the austerity of Lent is briefly lessened. It is the reason for the celebrant of the mass to put aside the 'purple' vestments of Lent, and instead, to don the more festive 'pink' vestment! 'Laetare' means 'Rejoice' in Latin, and it's pronunciation this weekend, again, reminds us that our Lenten season is fast approaching a conclusion, and the end of our journey, and the glories of the Easter season, are coming into view. May these last few weeks of Lent, continue to be a grace-filled time of introspection, and an opportunity to reconcile and strengthen our relationships with our God and one another!

Sincerely, Fr. Pat

+ 2016 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL +
'Share the Joy of the Gospel!'

Several of our parishioners (including myself) have received a mailing from the Diocese, soliciting a contribution to the 'Annual Catholic Appeal' If you have received an appeal letter, it is because, in the past you have contributed to this yearly appeal. It has caused some confusion, because of the 'Capital Campaign' that we recently conducted, and which, many of you, are still paying off your pledge in monthly installments. So just to clarify the confusion.

The 'Annual Catholic Appeal,' is conducted by the Diocese each year, and the funds from this 'Appeal' are directed to the many agencies of the Diocese that address the very real spiritual, physical and social needs of so many people ('Catholic Charities,' being one of the major recipients of support.) The goal for this annual 'Appeal,' is set by the Diocese, it is based on our annual weekly collection figures, and it was suspended last year, because of the 'Capital Campaign.' If you have contributed in the past, and are able to contribute again this year, please deposit your donation envelopes in the weekly collection. If you mail your contribution directly to the Diocese, please inform us, so that we can keep an accurate record of the funds collected.

+ Welcome & Congratulations +

We wish to extend a heartfelt 'Welcome' to the newest members of our Community, who were welcomed into the church through the Sacrament of Baptism during the month of February. We also extend 'Congratulations' to their parents and families.

+ Salvatore Ralph Mammana - son of Chelsea Sirabella and Salvatore Michael Mammana, was baptized on Sunday, February 21st.

+ Eva Lucia Pena Rankin - daughter of Alexandra Goncalves-Pena and David Bruce Rankin, was baptized on Sunday, February 28th.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Fourth Sunday of Lent

On this 'Laetare Sunday,' we rejoice as Luke's Jesus proclaims that God is boundlessly merciful. The parable's prodigal son returns home, not authentically repentant but desperate, having squandered on prostitutes (or so his older brother claims) the inheritance wrongly demanded while his father still lived. This selfish son is only spared ritual "shaming" when the father "shames" himself, running to embrace him, interrupting his prepared "act of contrition." By doing so he challenges confessors, and all of us, to be signs, says Pope Francis, "of the primacy of mercy always, everywhere, and in every situation, no matter what." Avoid the harshness of the elder son, Francis warns, "who stands outside, incapable of rejoicing," his judgment "severe, unjust, and meaningless in light of the father's boundless mercy" (Misericordiae Vultus, 17). If John's Gospel is proclaimed, the "religiously observant" people there likewise serve to warn against harshly judging others, for the physical blindness of the man they expel from the synagogue is healed, while their own blindness of heart remains.

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma

Este es el 'Domingo Laetare,' nos alegramos así como Jesús que en el Evangelio de Lucas proclama que Dios es infinitamente misericordioso. La parábola del hijo prodigo que regresa a casa, no propiamente arrepentido sino desesperado, después de haber gastado en prostitutas (como lo dice su hermano mayor) su herencia que equivocadamente pidió a su padre aún vivo.

Este hijo egoísta solo piensa en un ritual seguro de "vergüenza" cuando su padre se "demerita" así mismo al correr a abrazarlo, interrumpiendo su "acto de contrición" ya preparado. Desafiando a confesores y a todos nosotros, para ser signos de, dice el Papa Francisco, "ser siempre, en todas partes, en cada situación y a pesar de todo, el signo del primado de la misericordia". Al evitar la dureza del hijo mayor, el Papa Francisco nos advierte, "que se quedó afuera, incapaz de alegrarse, para explicarle que su juicio severo es injusto y no tiene ningún sentido delante de la misericordia del Padre que no conoce confines" (Misericordiae Vultus, 17). En caso que se proclame el Evangelio de Juan el pueblo "religiosamente obediente" en ese texto sirve como ejemplo para advertir de juzgar con dureza a los demás, el hombre ciego que recobró la vista es expulsado de la sinagoga mientras que en ellos su propia ceguera de corazón permanece.

+ Remembering Our Faithful Departed +

We entrust to your prayers, the repose of the soul of Augustine Aversano, who passed into eternal life on Saturday, February 27th. He was buried from our Church this past Wednesday, March 2nd. Augustine was 69 years of age.

"May his soul, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

Deanery Corner . . . The following events are being sponsored by our local 'Deanery,' which is comprised of nine parishes in our neighboring area. Please give them your support!
