From the Pastor's Desk . . .

Although our bulletin cover indicates that with this Sunday's liturgy, we usher in the 'Sixth Week of Ordinary Time,' on our church calendar, in reality, it will be a very 'short sixth week!' On Wednesday of this week, February 18th, we usher in a new church season . . . the 'Season of Lent' . . . with our observance of 'Ash Wednesday.'

The 'forty days' that follow Ash Wednesday, are a journey that will take us from 'Ashes to Easter,' and it is a season that holds many memories of 'Lents past.'

As a child, being introduced to the practice of engaging in acts of spiritual self-discipline, the season was synonymous with decisions on what to 'give up for Lent!' Giving up TV . . . or soda . . . or even (oh gosh, don't say it) CHOCOLATE, were all part of our childhood experience of Lent. As we grew older, our choices of self-discipline took on more adult issues, like giving up smoking, or alcohol or starting one's diet (again!). But it is also a great opportunity to add in extra devotions, prayers and even activities that help us contemplate the life and walk of Christ. The season of forty days, mirrors the forty days that Jesus spent in the desert, alone, in contemplation and in communion with his Father. It was a time of preparation for his 'public ministry' that would follow. For ourselves, it is also a 'quiet time,' when, as a community, we are invited into the desert of our soul for the same reasons . . . to contemplate our relationship with the Father, with one another and with ourselves. It is a time to find balance in our lives, again, and to reconcile those relationships, if they need repair.

I've share these thoughts over the past Lenten seasons we've journeyed together, but I find myself once again, as I have in 'Lents past,' wondering if I will try to observe the Lenten journey with more than just good intentions . . . 'again.'

But . . . maybe 'again' isn't such a bad thing. In the light of some of the huge events that have happened in our world since we celebrated Ash Wednesday a year ago, I am reminded that having the opportunity to do anything 'again' is a gift. It is a gift that so many of our sisters and brothers, will never have. Families whose lives were completely overturned through natural disasters, or worse yet, families who continue to grieve and mourn the loss of a loved one, and especially those lost through senseless violence. 'Again' is full of potential . . . isn't it? Full of possibility . . . isn't it? Full of life . . . isn't it?

So, as we begin the Lenten journey 'again,' this Ash Wednesday, we unite in prayer for each other 'again,' in order to die a little more to self 'again,' and to rise 'again,' to perhaps resemble Jesus a little more when we sing "Alleluia" at the end of our Lenten journey . . . 'again!'

So, beginning today, on this 'Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time,' might we use the next few days to prepare ourselves to enter fully into the Lenten season . . . 'again!'

I pray that this journey from 'Ashes to Easter' will be a grace-filled time for all of us . . . 'again!'

Sincerely, Fr. Pat

'Abstinence' from meat is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent, by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. 'Fasting' allows for only one full meal and two lighter meals and eating between meals is prohibited.

Catholics who are between the ages of 18 and 59 are asked to 'fast' on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If however, you have a serious health issue that would be compromised by the practice of 'fasting,' the obligation to fast is lifted.

'Ayuno' de Cuaresma: Una sola comida al día, las otras siendo algo ligero. La Iglesia require ayuno y abstinencia (no comer carne) los días: Miércoles de Ceniza y Viernes Santo.

La ley de la abstinencia obliga a los que han cumplido 14; la del ayuno, a todos los mayores de edad hasta que hayan cumplido 59. Es de notar que mientras el ayuno es hasta los 59, la abstinencia no tiene edad límite. Por lo tanto obliga mientras haya salud para hacerlo.
