From the Pastor's Desk. . .

This Sunday, the Church commemorates the Feast of 'Corpus Christi,' which is Latin for the 'Body of Christ.' Here in the United States, this feast is celebrated on the Sunday following the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity on the previous Sunday. Although the Easter season officially concluded on the Feast of Pentecost, and we have returned to the season in the Church referred to as 'Ordinary Time,' there are these special feasts that follow each year on the Sundays following Pentecost.

As I shared last week, the commemoration of the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity on the Sunday following the Feast of Pentecost, makes logical sense. On Pentecost we celebrate, and renew ourselves, in the 'gift' of the Holy Spirit. This 'Spirit,' as promised by Jesus to be with us for all time until the end of time, was the third manifestation of our God. With this gift of the Holy Spirit, we hold in faith, our belief in a 'triune' God . . . Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

This second Sunday after Pentecost we commemorate the Feast of Corpus Christi, which celebrates the 'gift' of the Holy Eucharist, and renews our belief in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Now, Holy Thursday, is the day that most of us think about when we speak of the 'gift' of the Eucharist, for indeed, that was the occasion when the gift of the Eucharist was given to us at the 'Last Supper.' Holy Thursday 'should' therefore be a more joyful and festive celebration, given the nature of the 'gift' that was given. However, such festival is precluded during Holy Week by the sad and sorrowful memories of the day and what followed . . . the betrayal of Judas . . . Christ's agony and arrest . . . Peter's denial . . . and the events that would ultimately lead us to Calvary.

So, it was a humble nun in Belgium, who first suggested, and then advocated for, a special feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament to be celebrated on a day other than Holy Thursday. The principal founder of the Feast of the Body of Christ was an Augustinian nun, Saint Juliana. St. Juliana looked upon the Holy Eucharist with great reverence, and desired to have a feast within the Church devoted specifically to its honor. She petitioned her bishop to designate a feast day to honor the most Blessed Sacrament and in 1264, Pope Urban IV, set a universal feast called 'Corpus Christi' to honor belief in the body and blood of Jesus Christ and his 'real presence' in the Eucharist. St. Thomas Aquinas was commissioned to compose the liturgy for the celebration and his explanation of the 'change of substance from bread and wine to Christ's body and blood,' is still studied and marveled at today. The belief in the 'real presence' of Jesus in the Eucharist was never so eloquently elucidated for the faithful as was accomplished by this brilliant and devout Dominican friar and 'Doctor of the Church.'

By 1325, the feast had been adopted throughout all of Europe and England. In many churches today, a procession with the Blessed Sacrament, will accompany the mass. In Rome, our Holy Father will preside over a procession that begins at the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran and then makes its way to the Basilica of Saint Mary Major, where it concludes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Sincerely, Fr. Pat

+ Father's Day Novena +

As we did for our mothers during the month of May, this month we will conduct a 'Father's Day Novena of Masses' to remember the men of our families, both living and deceased.

The novena will begin on the weekend of June 21st, 'Father's Day!' There are Father's Day cards in the rear of the Church, both in English and in Spanish. Simply complete the 'outer' envelope with the name(s) of those men, living or deceased, that you wish to have remembered in the Novena, and along with your offering, place the completed 'outer' envelope in the collection basket. The 'inner' Father's Day card, is yours to present to those fathers who are living. Please return the intention (outer) envelope by June 14th in order to have the names acknowledged in our Sunday Bulletin. The intention envelopes will then be placed on the altar on 'Father's Day!'

"Congratulations" & "Welcome!"

We would like to extend a heartfelt 'welcome' to the newest members of our community, who were received into the Christian community through the Sacrament of Baptism during the month of May. We also extend 'Congratulations' to their parents and families.
